

Category	7-6	5-4	3-2	1-0
Content	All content is accurate. Steps are in the correct order.* Answers reflect a clear understanding of the process that a bill goes through to become a law.	Most of the content is accurate. Most of the steps are in the correct order. Only one or two are out of place.* Answers reflect a general understanding of the process that a bill goes through to become a law.	Some of the content is accurate. Steps are somewhat in the correct order. More than three are out of place or missing.* Answers reflect a partial understanding of the process that a bill goes through to become a law.	Little of the content is accurate. Most steps are missing or out of place.* Answers do not reflect an understanding of the process that a bill goes through to become a law.
Technical Design	Flowchart shapes are used correctly throughout.	Flowchart shapes are mostly used correctly. There is only one or two errors.	Flowchart shapes are somewhat correct. There are more than three errors.	Flowchart shapes are used incorrectly for most of the assignment.
Organization & Appearance	Content is organized as directed. Design reflects outstanding planning and organization.	Content is relatively organized. Design reflects some planning and organization.	Content is somewhat organized but does not completely follow directions.	Content is not clearly organized and confusing to the reader.
Writing	Grammar and mechanics are correct throughout. There are no errors.	There are minor errors in grammar and mechanics throughout. There are fewer than five errors.	There are more than five errors in grammar and mechanics, though they do not affect the ability to read and understand the content.	There are significant and noticeable errors throughout. Errors affect the ability to understand the content.

*Students may opt to include an additional step relating to a law's constitutionality, they can. However, since it is not a common occurrence, it is not required for this assignment.