

Amending the Constitution: The Bill of Rights Worksheet

As you read the different recommendations for constitutional amendments offered first by the ratifying conventions and then James Madison, make a note on the worksheet below of which proposals led to the final text of the Bill of Rights. (An example is given).

Did Madison's amendments faithfully implement the wishes of the state ratifying conventions? Which amendments? Which, if any, were substantively different from those proposed by the states?

Which of Madison's recommended amendments did Congress substantively change? Why do you think they did so? Do you agree with those changes to Madison's proposals?

Did Congress's amendments faithfully implement the wishes of the state ratifying conventions? Which amendments? Which, if any, were substantively different from those recommended by the states? If there were different versions, which version do you like best and why?

First Amendment

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

New Hampshire: ELEVENTH Congress shall make no Laws touching Religion, or to infringe the rights of Conscience...

Second Amendment
